GAMMA CHAPTER OF ALPHA GAMMA RHO FRATERNITY AT PENN STATE | FALL 2019

A CALL FOR ALUMNI SUPPORT

Gamma Chapter Needs You!

Things at our chapter are still trending in the right direction. I want to start by congratulating the undergraduates for another great semester. While there have been some issues with house cleanliness, the collegians have quickly addressed all alumni concerns and have kept the house running smoothly.

Just some quick factoids: the chapter has the third-highest GPA on campus; ZERO borough points, down from 7; and we are currently the largest chapter of AGP in the entire country. Great progress from a group of great young leaders!

I want to thank all the alumni who have come back into the mix. We have two new board members, John Merenick '86 (Γ1236) and Rob McLaren '15 (Γ1701), who have stepped up to the plate and been great additions to the board with fresh perspectives. With a growing group of active alumni, the increased alumni attention has helped the current chapter grow and develop properly. Special thanks our adviser trio, Corey Hudson, Kevin Wimpfheimer '15 (Γ1685), and Bryan Dillehay. Their on-site presence has helped immensely!

The undergraduates have been firing on all cylinders, as you'll see in this issue. From my perspective, our weakest link right now is our alumni involvement. Please get involved! Honestly, you can pretty much pick any position or initiative you want; we run on volunteers so almost everything is up for grabs. Or at the VERY least, subscribe to get our alumni emails. You can always unsubscribe if you change your mind.

Last thing; I sound like a broken record, but we really need alumni donations to pay down our mortgage debt. At the time of this publication, we have $950,000 in mortgage debt remaining. Currently, undergraduate rent is slated to pay off 80% of this debt over the next 15 years, and we're handcuffed in doing any major chapter repairs until 2034 at the current rate. So, unless someone out there wants to donate $100,000, we have to beg for money every Gamma Crescent. Please sign up to pledge $5 a month on our website at <https://www.agrgamma.com/giving>. That's crazy affordable for the all the fun you had in college!

Fraternally,

The Purpose of Alpha Gamma Rho

The experience of pledging Alpha Gamma Rho and becoming an active member of Gamma Chapter taught me there is nothing life can throw me that I can't handle. Pledging and becoming a part of the brotherhood stretched my ability to be resilient in the face of the unknown. It humbled me as I had to do tasks and duties that I didn't enjoy and felt beneath me. That humbling experience gave me a newfound respect for my future brothers. Learning how to earn respect has served me well in my personal life, work life, and everyday life.

I not only learned respect for my new brotherhood, but I also learned a greater respect for the AGP house. Our house was a social place, a place of pride, and a reflection of the brothers that lived in the house. As a pledge and a brother, we all worked hard to keep the house clean. We were grateful to live in such a beautiful house that had been the home of many successful alumni. We conducted work sessions throughout the semester where all the brothers worked together on common projects and general house cleaning. These work sessions taught me the power of WE and not just ME. We all learned that working together as a brotherhood, we could accomplish great things.

Being an AΓP at Penn State, I learned some quirky traits that follow me every day. Not sure if the brothers still teach this, but we were always taught to put our knife and fork at 5 o'clock on our plate when done eating. This was our signal to let the servers know we were done dining and they could take our plate. It is a habit that I continue today. We learned old AΓP fraternity songs that have been passed down through many generations. I even tend to sing these to my wife and my AΓP brothers when we get together.

AΓP has been a source of lifelong friendships and career opportunities no matter where I live. My pledge class and brothers from the house stay in touch regularly, even though we may not see each other for several years. We have been a part of each other's weddings, celebrated new children, successes, failures, losses, divorces, health crises, and even successful matchmaking. No matter where we are, we do what we can to support each other. As the old saying goes, you only get out as much as you put into something. I am glad I went all-in when I joined the brotherhood of AΓP. The experience has given me lifelong friendships, new friends all over the country, and I always have that special place that no matter where I am will always be called home.

AΓP was the catalyst for success in my professional and personal life. I have worked for several companies in the food industry, and currently work for Sargento Foods in Plymouth, Wis. And each company gave me a unique skill set. Always remember to take the good with the bad and learn from each experience to propel yourself further with each new opportunity.

My first job after I graduated in 1988 was with Cargill in Janesville, Wis. I had planned on getting some experience under my belt and then would move back to the east coast to be near my family. As many of you know, things don't always work out according to our plan. Shortly after starting my new job, I met Jody, my beautiful wife. Jody has been my best friend and wife for 27 years. We have two amazing sons, Nick (23) and Alex (20). We are proud of both. I believe my experience at AGR made me a better man to be the best husband and father I could be.

I want to leave you with this last thought of how I view brotherhood. I love this definition: "From the outside, it's hard to understand, from the inside, it's hard to explain, but it feels amazing when you find it." I found brotherhood at Gamma Chapter of Alpha Gamma Rho and it was the best decision, other than marrying my wife, I have ever made in my life.

UNWAVERING ALUMNI SUPPORT ESSENTIAL TO GAMMA'S CONTINUED SUCCESS

We are incredibly grateful for the 81 generous alumni who contributed $9,230 to Gamma's annual campaign during 2019. These brothers, along with our other steadfast alumni and friends who have contributed to Gamma since the beginning of our annual campaign in 2012, recognize the importance of securing the future of AGP at Penn State. Although we have lost many of these brothers over the years, they understood the importance of brotherhood and ensuring that future members have the same opportunities that they were afforded during their time at Gamma.

Donors are listed below in their cumulative giving level by initiation year. If an error has been made in recording the amount of your gift, please contact our campaign coordinator at (785) 843-1661. Thank you for your continued support!

GAMMA CHAPTER STANDS OUT AMONG MANY

In the fall 2019 semester, Gamma Chapter is arguably stronger than ever. In-house numbers were a big struggle last year, having only 19 brothers living in for the spring of 2019. This year has been a different story. Gamma Chapter is proud to have 44 in-house brothers, with 10 seniors included. Alumni involvement has been much better than in years past as well. The relationship between the alumni and undergraduate boards is stronger than it has been in decades. Gamma Chapter also boasts a very strong 3.27 GPA from the spring 2019 semester, third-highest among fraternities at PSU. The fraternities with higher GPAs had no more than 50 members, while Gamma had over 100. Keeping the GPA so high with such large numbers is an accomplishment we are all very proud of.

A struggle that we have faced with 44 in-house members is keeping the house clean. With the help of some alumni—shoutout to Greek and John Merenick '86 (Γ1236)—we had a collaborative alumni and undergraduate work session to set a standard for house cleanliness expectations. This has helped greatly with keeping the house in good shape.

Recruitment on the Rise

This fall semester we had a greatly successful recruitment. After going through the whole process with zone days and open recruitment, we gave out 10 bids and received seven acceptances, who are all great guys. This is a huge return and something Gamma Chapter is immensely proud of. For recruitment in the spring semester, I'm excited and hopeful for another great class and high acceptance rate under the new VNR recruitment.

A NOTE FROM VNR MEMBERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

This semester we have a new member class of eight sophomores that have a range of majors. Although this has been a smaller class compared to the last few years, they are a great group of men. With the current class, we have a brotherhood of 105 men.

GAMMA CHAPTER FUNDS

This semester, we have implemented a tiered dues system. We felt that upperclassmen should be rewarded for their seniority, and because they do not use as much of the social budget, we also felt it would be fair if we implemented the tiered system. We also hope this discourages upperclassmen from disaffiliating, and so far this semester, we have not lost a brother. The in-house dues per semester are now $5,700 for seniors, $5,900 for juniors, $6,100 for sophomores, and the out-of-house dues are $1,000, $1,100, and $1,200, respectively.

The meal plan is $1,400, which is included with dues for the in-house brothers, and the out-of-house brothers can opt-in to it. We also have a partial meal plan that includes one meal a day for $750, leaving a charge of about $3,400 for rent. Happy Valley Home Cooking is our current food vendor, and our chef, Chad, cooks Monday through Friday for every meal, except for Friday dinner, when we order pizza. This usually costs around $200, and one of our caterers, Matt Kimick '18 (Γ1789), also buys food for the weekend. We were able to eliminate the in-house surcharge from last year, thanks to the increase in the number of brothers living in-house.

Studying Takes Precedence for Gamma Chapter

Gamma Chapter's GPA for the spring 2019 semester was 3.27. We ranked third among all fraternities on the Penn State campus. This followed coming in first during the fall 2018 semester, which makes two semesters in a row in the top three fraternity GPAs, a feat which all the brothers seem to be immensely proud of. Compared to all Greek organizations, we ranked 17 out of around 60 active organizations. Furthermore, the in-house study lounge has been remodeled and revamped to allow in-house brothers a quiet, easy place to study and do homework.

AGP Keeps Community on the Mind

As VNR of planning and serving my second semester on the executive board, our chapter is set for another successful semester. Following in our footsteps from last semester, we have maintained our fantastic relationship with the university. I frequently meet with our university representative, Salem Awwad, and am actively working to find our chapter a Penn State University advisor. This person will be a faculty member of the university who can continue to help our relationship with the university develop and strengthen. Our documentation with the university is up to date and we are currently in good standing, as the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life proclaims.

This year, community service and philanthropy are not included in the university's standards of excellence. Thus, most of our community work has been for THON and attempting to increase our total as high as possible. Our goal is currently set at $100,000, almost double the goal we set last year. We are working tirelessly with frequent fundraisers and community events to achieve this goal. Many of our brothers engage in community service such as brother Ben Essig '18 (Γ1787), who volunteers as an EMT and has received over 460 service hours in the name of AGR! We will be having a brotherhood community service event at the end of the semester, most likely raising money for one our favorite philanthropy organizations, Centre County Paws.

CHAPTER HOUSE MADE TO PLEASE ACTIVE AND ALUMNI BROTHERS

This semester as VNR Maintenance and Operations, most of the job has consisted of keeping the house in working order and adjusting it to accommodate the 45 brothers living in it. This is highlighted by the construction of six new benches and reinforcing tables for brothers to sit at during meals and during chapter. During September, room 202, known as "Gamer" throughout the house, was renovated in order to become better suited to facilitate brotherhood events. On October 12, some of the alumni came out to lead an "alumni clean" in order to teach the undergrads how they expected the house to look on a daily basis.
